

The Art Of Fair Trade

This holiday season, why not shop for a cause? You can buy lovely gift items and help people in developing countries improve their lives at the same time by purchasing Fair Trade items at The Art of Fair Trade gallery show and sale.

When - November and December, Wednesdays to Sundays,
2 to 6 pm (Closed Mondays and Tuesdays)

Where - The 5 East Art Gallery at Kathy's Kove and Kafé,
5 E. Washington Ave. (Route 57 E) Washington, NJ 07882

What - A show and sale of Fair Trade arts and crafts from throughout the world. In addition to giving craftspeople a fair wage and assistance marketing their products, each participating non-profit vendor also supports a cause. On selected weekends, receptions will be held from 2 to 5 for the vendors to speak about how the money they earn from the sale of their products supports their cause.

Who - Nov. 13 - Project Have Hope, education and business development in Uganda

Nov. 14 - MayaMam Weavers, a weaving co-op in Guatemala

Nov. 20 - Rahab's Rope, anti-human trafficking in India

Nov. 21 - Bridge of Faith, schools and orphanages in Nigeria

Dec. 4 - Ghana 4E, computer training in Ghana

Dec. 11 - Eternal Threads, anti-trafficking and support for artisans in twelve countries

For more information, contact Marge Royle at BridgeofFaith@comcast.net or 908-750-4727 or Kathy LaCorte at info@kathyskove.com or (908) 689-6878.